JOHNSON COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY STEVE HOWE MAKES THE FOLLOWING ANNOUNCEMENT

From: Steve Howe
(Olathe, KS)

Date: June 12, 2018

Today, Judge Brenda Cameron sentenced Lindsey Nichole Thomasson to 26.7 years in prison for the death of 2-year old Gardner, Kansas resident Presley Porting.

Date: April 13, 2018

Johnson County District Attorney Steve Howe announces that Lindsey Nichole Thomasson entered a plea of no contest and was found guilty by the Court of the charges of second degree murder and aggravated kidnapping. These charges stem from the death of Presley Porting on February 7, 2017.

Thomasson's sentencing is scheduled for June 12, 2018.

The case was investigated by the Gardner Police Department and the Johnson County Sheriff's Office and was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorneys Jason Covington and Ryan Walkiewicz.
