Today, Johnson County District Court Judge Timothy McCarthy sentenced Anthony Allen to 331 months in the custody of the Kansas Department of Corrections.

The case was investigated by the Lenexa Police Department and prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Megan Ahsens.

September 18, 2019

A Johnson County jury found Anthony Allen guilty of aggravated kidnapping and two counts of rape. These charges were filed based on a report by Mr. Allen's girlfriend that she had been held against her will for several weeks.
