On February 26, 2020, Johnson County District Court Judge T. Kelly Ryan sentenced Ron Richard Larsen, Jr. to 35 years in the custody of the Kansas Department of Corrections. On March 25, 2019, Larsen was found guilty by a jury of aggravated burglary, attempted aggravated burglary, kidnapping, and theft charges.

Larsen was on parole for multiple aggravated burglaries at the time he committed the crimes in this case. Judge Ryan granted the State's motion for an upward durational departure.

Lenexa Police Department and the Johnson County Criminalistics Laboratory were the investigating agencies and Assistant District Attorneys Vanessa Riebli and Xavier Andrews prosecuted the case.
