

STATE OF KANSAS

Tenth Judicial District

From: District Attorney Steve Howe

(Olathe, KS)

Date: December 15, 2017

Johnson County District Attorney Steve Howe announces that William D. Luth pleaded guilty as charged today in Johnson County District Court case 16CR2589. The complaint filed included charges of: aggravated kidnapping, two counts of rape, and aggravated criminal sodomy.

Luth's sentencing is scheduled for 02/15/2018.

Co-defendant, Brady A. Newman-Caddell's case 16CR2590 is pending.

The case was investigated by the Olathe Police Department, the Independence, Missouri Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Johnson County Sheriff's Office and the Johnson County Criminalistics Laboratory. The case was prosecuted by District Attorney Steve Howe and Assistant District Attorney Jason Covington.

###